Jim McClellan Head Volleyball Coach

Jim McClellan enters his second season at the helm of the Lady Eagle volleyball squad after directing Morehead State to a successful campaign a year ago.

McClellan directed the Lady Eagles to a 25-18 record last season and claimed runner-up honors in the Ohio Valley Conference Volleyball Tournament.

A native of Louisville, McClellan joined the MSU staff in 1981 from Bellarmine College. He led Bellarmine to a 27-13 record, a KWIC Division II State Championship, and a third place finish in the AIAW Southern Regional in 1980.

McClellan lettered four years for the University of Louisville baseball program and received his bachelor's degree there in 1969. He is a graduate of Louisville's Bishop David High School.

Active in volleyball the entire year, McClellan is a member of the Sports Camp International national staff and holds a Level II national coaches' certification. He is also active in the United States Volleyball Association.

McClellan also directs the Morehead State women's softball team. He is single.

Toni Woods Graduate Assistant Coach

Toni Woods, a native of Sarasota, Fla., is in her initial season as graduate assistant coach with the Lady Eagle volleyball squad.

Woods, 22, lettered four seasons in volleyball at Florida Southern. She was honored on the all-state, all-region, and Division II All-America teams in volleyball in 1980. She earned her bachelor's degree at Florida Southern in 1981.

Woods was also a standout athlete for Venice (Fla.) High School, receiving most valuable player awards in basketball, track, and softball.

Woods operated last year as a teacher at Martha B. King Middle School in Bradenton, Fla. She has also served as an instructor at the Florida Southern volleyball camps. She is single.

Morehead State University
1982 Lady Eagles

Outlook

With only one starter gone from last season's 25-18 squad, Morehead State University Volleyball Coach Jim McClellan has to be optimistic about the 1982 season.

McClellan, in his second season as Lady Eagle coach, has enough talented performers for another winning season. In addition, he thinks the adjustments made last season will be an asset.

"There were a few games we should have won last season that we didn't because we were putting in a new system," he said. "The players coming back have adjusted. The freshmen are having a little trouble."

This Lady Eagle squad will have a familiar look, with the front-line attack being the strong point. Despite the graduation of standout Lisa Luthy, the front line includes several experienced performers.

Heading the list is Martha Rust, a senior from Southgate, Ky. "She's a franchise," McClellan says of Rust, considered an All-American candidate. "Nobody that we played last year was able to shut her off."

Rust is one of three seniors on the team. The others—Becky Peterson of Fairfield, Ohio, and Peg Hofmann of Cincinnati—are expected to make big contributions, McClellan said.

Three juniors who should figure prominently in the 1982 season are Sally Liber, Tracy Slater, and Debbie Trottier. McClellan calls Trottier "one of the better all-around players on the team." Liber is a setter and Slater is a front-line player.

Sophomores Mary Bradley and Carol Wauligman are experienced players who should play a lot this season.

Four freshman—Terri Jo Boas, Colleen Pritchard, Wendy Rumford, and Mariann Spice—will contribute to the Lady Eagles' fortunes.

The Lady Eagles were second to Eastern Kentucky in the Ohio Valley Conference tournament last season and McClellan thinks his team will challenge Eastern for the title again this season.

MSU's non-conference schedule is challenging. The Lady Eagle Invitational, one of five tournaments on the MSU schedule, includes Florida State and Memphis State, two highly regarded teams.

The Lady Eagles

Terri Jo Boas, Fr. Hollywood, Fla.

A strong player with great potential. One of the tallest players on the team. Will see action if she continues to improve.

Mary Bradley, So. Cincinnati, Ohio

One of the team's strongest and most consistent hitters. Third on team in block assists last season with 56. Has great enthusiasm.

Peg Hofmann, Sr. Cincinnati, Ohio

A starter all last season. Outstanding defensive player. Third on team in solo blocks last season with 32. Quickest player on the team and one of the best all-around athletes.

Sally Liber, Jr. Cincinnati, Ohio

A setter and defensive specialist. Third on team in serve aces with 39 last season. Has shown great improvement over last season.

Becky Peterson, Sr. Fairfield, Ohio

Strong middle blocker and hitter. The team's strongest player. Second on team in kills and solo blocks last season. Expected to carry a big part of the attack.

Colleen Pritchard, Fr. Middletown, Ohio

An excellent setter with good hitting and defensive skills. Expected to contribute to the team early in the season.

Wendy Rumford, Fr. Alexandria, Ky.

A highly recruited freshman with sound all-around skills. Expected to see action early. Went to same high school as Martha Rust.

Martha Rust, Sr. Southgate, Ky.

A legitimate All-American candidate. Fundamentally sound in all phases of the game. Led team in blocks and kills last season. Hard worker.

Tracy Slater, Jr. Michigan City, Ind.

Best jumper on the team. Has shown great potential. Had 80 kills and 12 solo blocks last season. 1982 expected to be her year.

Mariann Spice, Fr. Newburgh, Ind.

A left-handed hitter with all physical skills needed to be a top player. Could be in the starting lineup before season's end.

Debbie Trottier, Jr. La Porte, Ind.

A solid all-around performer. An outstanding defensive player. Had 24 serve aces last season. Will see considerable playing time this season.

Carol Wauligman, So. Cincinnati, Ohio

Has good overall skills and a great attitude. One of the hardest workers on the team. Had 25 kills and eight serve aces last season.
